

December 2016 Update

We closed out a very successful year with some fun and/or significant events

- Oct 29th: White Elephant Parade. CERT members enjoyed handing-out candy as they walked along the parade route while Elliot Klahr towed the CERT trailer with its new GGV CERT logo signs.
- Dec 7th: Potluck dinner. 25 CERT members and guests relished lots of delicious food.
- Dec 8th: White Elephant Grant Awards. GGV CERT received a much needed $1,500 grant to help us buy equipment and supplies for the coming year.
- Support to Nogales CERT: GGV CERT members supported two Basic Courses held by Nogales Office of Emergency Management, one for teenagers and the second for adults. Paul Fitch taught three classes at each of the events.
- Dec 14th: The GGV CERT Council met to elect officers and to plan the 2017 training schedule (see the training schedule on the website).
